INTRODUCTION

Most of the time we operate with a flawed understanding of what it looks like to be spiritually mature. This faulty definition has caused many churches to actually get in the way of those interested in a relationship with God. So what does it look like to be spiritually mature? And how do you get there? We want to discuss how you can partner with the church to move in the right direction and bring others along with you.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. When you think about spiritual maturity, what comes to mind?
2. Read Matthew 22:37-39. How would Jesus define spiritual maturity?
3. Why do we tend to set up knowledge as the goal rather than the means to an end?
4. What would a watching world say about your love for God and your love for others?
5. How does the church actually get in the way of those who desire to develop a love relationship with God?
6. How have the three different environments been set up to lead people in a growing relationship with God (Foyer, Living Room, Kitchen)?
7. How can you become part of a team in order to create a Foyer, Living Room, or Kitchen environment for those pursuing a relationship with God?
8. Who can you invite to experience one of these environments with you?

CHANGING YOUR MIND

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth. Acts 1:8
